HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. If it stains the linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to pass it, or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Klimer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, Ridneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and a book that tells all about it, both sent discolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Klimor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When triting be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the St. Louis Daily Republic. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Klimer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle. What To Do.

Lady Managers Entertain President's Daughter at Informal Afternoon Function.

SHE ASSISTS IN RECEIVING.

Many Notable Guests Meet Energetic Young Woman-French Commissioner Gives Dinner for Her in Evening.

Miss Roosevelt's

PROGRAMME TO-DAY. Entertainments for Miss Rooseo'clock breakfast which the New York Commission, Mrs. Norman El Mack, hostess, will give for her in the New York building.

The afternoon will be devoted to more sight-seeing at the Fair, and at night Miss Catlin, Miss Roosevelt and Miss Warder will be entertained at the Country Club by Allen West, who is giving a dinner.

Two functions were given in honor of Miss Roosevelt yesterday, the luncheon by the Board of Lady Managers in the afteron being a jolly affair, at which the stiff formality that has characterized other affairs of the kind was absent. In the even ing Miss Roosevelt was the honor guest at a dinner given for her by M. Michel La-grave, the French Commissioner General. Many prominent society persons were present at both affairs.

Other entertainments for the President's daughter, or some of them, have been formal and large and hurried, but vesterday's was not. One hundred and sixty person in the spacious green salon, or the long banquet hall, gave everybody plenty of elhow room and a chance to display her chiffon flounces to best advantage.

All the guests, or many of them, had been to Doctor Lewald's ball the night before and felt in fine fettle for reminiscence noon's fun was the fact that a large pro portion of those who lunched with Mrs. Manning and the board were young peoanning and the board were young people.

These have been meeting Miss Roosevelt new for several days and with them she is tolerably well acquainted. So she sat at the big square center table in the banquet-room, chatted with President Francis on one side and with Mrs. Manning on the other, while discussing a four-course menu with interest, and talking over her shoulder to various persons, especially Doctor Hardy, Mr. Rainsford, Lionberger Davis and Doctor Lewald, who came up from time to time, plate in hand, to tell a joke or to comment on her most recent gift, the little jeweled watch which was given to her by the French Commission, through M. Legrave, its representative, that morning, She showed the watch, which is really a small clock on a pendant, to everyone, and had clock on a pendant, to everyone, and had it pinned to the left side of her pretty cream-tinted linen gown. ASSISTS IN RECEIVING.

Miss Roosevelt arrived at the lunche n time to receive most of the guests with Mrs. Manning, Mrs. Mary Phelps Mont-Allenists at the World's Fair elect officers.

Mrs. Manning was in bisque satin messaline, with inserts of black and white lace, and a large white hat, plumed in white. Mrs. Montgomery wore white chiffon crape, with lace and a small black and white hat; Mrs. Ernst, a white chiffon gown with gold braiding and ornamentation; Mrs. Moores, white creps de Chine, and Mrs. Holcombe, a ross pink messaline, shirred on cords, and black lace hat, Miss Eagan was in white cloth, braided and trimmed with blue.

Governor Francis took Miss Roosevelt out to luncheon, the distinguished guests occupying a center table, trimmed with rich red and white peonles. The other guests were served from the buffet.

After luncheon there was a decided spirit of lingering in the atmosphere. The guests filled hallways and saion, the band played mexrily in the forward hall, and the indefatigable photographers lined up the receiving party and took their pictures in several positions, including one of Miss Roosevelt alone, in her simple white frock and her pretty girlish hat with the big bunch of La France roses in her arms that the Board of Lady Managers had presented to her on her arrival. It was half after I before the Catin party, Miss Roosevelt, Governor Francis and some of the German Commission, including Doctor Lewald, Doctor Hardy and Count Limburg-Birum, started on foot for the German K-ray exhibit, and the other luncheon guests called their carriages.

WATCH FOR MISS ROOSEVELT.

President's Daughter Receives Token From French Commissioner. Miss Alice Roosevelt, the daughter of the President, began her day at the Fair yesterday as the guest of M. Michael Lagrave Commissioner General of the French Republic to the Exposition.

M. Lagrave sent his French automobile. in charge of an experienced chauffeur, to the residence of Daniel G. Catlin, at No. 21 Vandeventer place, at 9:30 in the morning, with Viscount de Chambrun, one of the secretaries of the French Legation at Washington, as his representatinve to esort Miss Roosevelt to the Exposition.

On her arrival at the grounds Miss Roosevelt was met by M. Lagrave and Jean Guillemin, the delegate of the French ALICE'S HEART. Ministry of Foreign Affairs, who escorted her to the Manufactures building, where Ministry of Foreign Affairs, who escorted French exhibits, which forms a part of the display. The beautiful bronzes, the tapestries, the jewels, the Paris gowns and the large assortment of French handicraft productions, proved an endless ource of enjoyment.

Everywhere Miss Roosevelt stopped to express her delight and wonder at the contribution of France to the Exposition. In the jewel-room she manifested special nterest in the miniature watches of quaint and curious design. One pretty chatelaine watch, designed in the form of a lantern, was the object of her special admiration.

Noticing her interest in the watch, M. Lagrave politely ordered the attendant to open the case, and picking up the watch he presented it to his guest. Miss Roosevelt immediately pinned the timplece on her jacket and expressed her delight with

When the view of the exhibit was cor pleted, M. Lagrave conducted his guest to the French national payllion, the Tri-anon, where another hour was spent in viewing its beautiful apartments. Miss Roosevelt was then conducted to the luncheon given by the Board of Lady Managers.

Lieutenant Governor David Bartlett of North Dakota arrived in St. Louis yesterday and at once extended a formal invitation to Miss Roosevelt to visit the North Dakota exhibit.

Miss Roosevelt had previously expressed a desire to see the log cabin which had been occupied by her father. Governor Hartlett requested Miss Roosevelt to fix her own date for the visit.

The Roosevelt cabin forms an interesting exhibit, Much of the furniture in it is the same used by President Roosevelt when he was an occupant of the cabin. One particularly interesting relic is a straw hat, in the crown of which is the inscription, "Medora, 1883. T. R."

mittee this afternoon, the Governor assured those present that he had not been defeated, and expressed himself as confident that he would control the situation in the end, and that nobody would be nominated without his consent. He pledged himself to take care of his friends and not sacrifice them. This assurance was satisfactory to some of the cornfield delegates, but those who have been voting steadfastly for Yates and have participated in conventions before are making their peace with Lowden or Hamlin, going to the one each individual believes is the stronger and most likely to be chosen.

going to the one each individual believes is the stronger and most likely to be chosen.

The convention met this afternoon at 2:10, and the floor and galleries were crowded with an expectant crowd. There was a profusion of Yates, Deneen and Hamilin advertising on the walls and roof beams, but everything pertaining to Lowden's and Sherman's candidacies has been removed. In fact, there wasn't a vacant spot for anything of the kind.

The Yates soldiers showed up with handsome new badges, intended to keep them in line, with a handsome medailion portrait of the Governor in gilt attached to a blue silk badge, on which was the Yates slogan: "All the World Loves a Fighter; All the World Hates a Quitter." Some of them bore the title, "Yates Campaign Committee," others "Yates Executive Committee," while others "Yates Executive Committee." YATES DEMONSTRATION.

Promptly at 2 o'clock, when the armory was packed, Governor Yates marched down the center aisle. The demonstration the spectacular entries of the Governor during the proceedings two weeks ago. It showed the temper of the convention to a marked degree, and plainly indicated that the enthusiasm of the Yates delegates and "rooters" is on the wane.

There were no incidents worthy of note during the balleting excepting a squabble in Bureau County, when Chairman Dalzell, a friend of Lowden, attempted to vote State Veterinarian Lovejoy for Lowden. It seems that Lovejoy was not chosen originally as a delegate, but was accepted in place of one of the regular delegates when the convention first met and voted on every ballot for Yates, Today Dalzell wanted to weed Lovejoy out of the pasture, and the State Veterinathe spectacular entries of the Governor and veted on every ballot for lates, day Dalzell wanted to weed Lovejoy out of the pasture, and the State Veterinarian, who receives $3,000 a year, made a "holler." He was permitted to vote for the Governor, as his name had been handed in by the Credentials Committee and accepted by the convention.
